a new food product on line. The company markets sweet and savory, frozen baked specialty products. Retail brands include Patissa, Van Diermen, Tulip Street Bakery and Breadeli. Major product lines include frozen mini cream puffs, éclairs, pastries, and specialty breads. Boboli has added a new frozen dessert product line to America from Holland and has opened a 103,968 square foot facility in the Stockton Airport Business center.

The company recently won top Food & Beverage Executive magazine's 2009 Innovation Awards in the frozen desserts category. The award was for its new Blissful Bites brand of miniature puff pastries, produced in Stockton, offered in a parfait-style container designed to fit into vehicle cup holders. It also won for Ambretta - Tuscan style flat breads. For more information, please visit Boboli International.

San Joaquin County Enterprise Zone

On June 22, 2008, the San Joaquin County Enterprise Zone expanded to include parts of Lodi, Manteca, Tracy, Lathrop and an increased area in Stockton to total more than 650 square miles.

The County Enterprise Zone provides five categories of tax savings for businesses located within zone boundaries:

1. Hiring Tax Credit
2. Sales and Use Tax Credit on qualified machinery purchases used in production
3. Business Expense Deduction - up to $20,000 per year on tangible personal property
4. Net Operating Loss Carryover - up to 100% carryover to future years
5. Net interest deduction for lenders - which may result in 3-4% increase in return on investment.

How can this help your business? When you hire qualifying employees, tax credits can total $37,400 per employee over five years. Visit San Joaquin County Enterprise Zone for more information.

EZ Specialists Connie Rill and Ed Wanket are available to provide Enterprise Zone assistance by calling 209-468-3615.

Final state approval was recently received allowing qualifying businesses to capture tax credits from June 22, 2008!
